COMMITTEE REPORTS, DISCUSSIONS AND NEW BUSINESS

Pump house report

The interior walls and ceiling were insulated with R22, poly'd, drywalled, taped, mudded, sanded, and painted. A laminate floor was installed and the window was trimmed out. The door still needs to be trimmed and baseboard installed after the cabinets are put in. A lever door knob was installed.

On Friday, April 11, BC Aquifer installed a pressure tank and the appropriate fittings and pressure switch. I asked them to send the bill to Hope.

We will purchase 2-250 gallon plastic food grade water tanks. One will sit on the ground by the pumphouse, the other on the back of the truck. It will feed into the one on the ground. If need be, the truck will drive into Lake Cowichan and fill up again at Kyles.

When we are ready to hold the course or courses (if single gender) BC Aquifer will rent us a pump for $50 per course (as opposed to buying one for $8-900. This will be connected to the tank on the ground at the source end, and to the pressure tank via a garden hose at the supply end. That will complete the temporary water system.

What's left? The interior plumbing from the pressure tank to the demand HW heater, to the sink and dishwasher; the exterior removeable plumbing to the shower(s) and toothbrushing sinks around the back. Then the cabinets, upper and lower, and the countertops. Shower enclosure(s) and toothbrushing station. Full width shelf above the window and door.

Total cost remaining: $1000 labour (6 days, 3 for plumbing, 3 for cabinetry), $300 for plumbing, $300-$1200 for cabinetry (depending on availability of good used buys or new), $200 for showers and toothbrushing station, $300? BC Aquifer bill. So about $2100-$3000.

The lever set, 2 fridges, stove, hood vent have all been donated. A dishwasher will be loaned. It will make a difference if single gender courses are planned. This will determine whether one or two showers will need to be built. If only one shower is built, the other side deck can be used for the one or two extra fridges that will be available and if we go by the Spruston experience, fridge space will be important.

We will need to dig a pit for the waste water. Maybe get Bob Simpson to dig a 4X4 hole and fill it with drain rock.

Operations report

- Kyle mentioned that Carl suggested raising the building and replacing the footings. Steve will look into taking care of this project.
- Steve – discussed idea of purchasing a container (8ft x 8ft x 40ft) to have on site for safe storage. We can have supplies here on site, tools, makes it easier to access items needed for course's...More discussion is needed.
- Well water at this time can not be used as potable water, needs to be tested.
- Recommend using city or treated water for now. Options were discussed regarding hauling and storing the water.
- Road discussion - No road upgrading required at this time.
- Arnie suggest selling the left over well rings. Kyle will put the word out.
- Arnie will register the dug well through the Provincial Ministry of Environment
